

IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

To be issued a Colorado Driver's License or Identification Card, you must prove the following elements: your full legal name, identity, age and lawful presence in the United States. The chart below shows the documents that you may use to prove each of these elements. In some cases, a single document may prove all four elements. However, it may be necessary for some applicants to provide multiple documents in order to prove all the required elements. All documents presented must be certified originals or certified amended originals or true copies certified by the issuing agency.

If you can not prove each of the required elements with the documents set forth in the chart below, then you may request to go through "Exceptions Processing" in order to prove the required elements with additional/alternative documents.

All applicants will need one document to prove their residential address. A parent's proof of address indicated on license is acceptable for a minor child. See back page for list of acceptable address documents.
